On The Vine:

"Everything that God is doing in your life is eternal. He isn't just fixing you up for a few months. He is resourcing you forever."

Hap Leman - Pastor The Vineyard Church, Urbana

A couple of months ago I read the above quote from my long time friend Hap Leman on his Facebook page. Hap in my opinion is one of the wisest men that I know. This quote spoke to me because of what God is doing and will do in my life this summer isn't just for a few months. He is doing a work that has eternal value. As individual people we cannot compartmentalize our body, mind, and soul. Our culture tries its best to divide them but in reality they interconnected. The soul directly and proportional effects our body and our minds. Our soul, the one that God breathed life into and made us human beings, needs to be cared for on a regular basis. If we fail to properly do so, it will eventually affect our mind, our emotions and our bodies.

The New Testament often speaks of healing (or people being healed) and we often wrongly assume that it narrowly means only physical healing. Yet, two of the Greek words used by the writers of the New Testament mean much more than physical healing. Sozo (diasozo) & iaomai carry the deeper meaning of being "made completely whole" and "to do so thoroughly." When Jesus healed someone, he healed more than their physical condition, he healed their entire being. Healing in the New Testament involves not only physical but spiritual and emotional healing as well. With this understanding, I will use this sabbatical and time away from ministry to allow God to bring healing to my life.

After three decades of ministry, I have come to a point where I need time to recharge and renew my soul. It is my prayer and I hope yours that the Lord would do this very thing in the days that are to come. I will definitely miss each of you while I am away. However, it is my belief that those in leadership are more than equipped to handle the duties of the ministry at FBC in my absence. I look forward to my return to this church and the pulpit on July 31 because I am excited about what God is going to be doing here as well. It's with deep appreciation that I thank the Deacons and countless others for their support and encouraging words these past few months!

In His Strength, Kevin
